The foundation of the Universitie of Cambridge, With a Catalogue of the principall Founders and speciall Benefactours of all the Colledges, and totall number of Students, Magistrates and Officers therein being, Anno 1634.

To the right honourable THOMAS Earl of Arundell and Surrey, Primier Earl of Enland, and Earl Marshall of the same Kingdome, Baron Howard, Mowbray, Segrave, Brus, of Gower, Fitzallen, Clun, Oswaldstree and Mautravers; Knight of the most nobe Order of the Garter, and one of the Lords of his Majes ries most honourable privie Counfell, Jo H N Sccr wisherhall increase of honour and felicitie.

The learned in antiquities have diversly written about the time of the foundation of the Universitie of Cambridge: fom affirming it was founded by Cantaber a Prince of Spain, brother to Partholinus King of Ireland, some in law to Gurguntius King of Great Britain, many yeares before the incarnation of our Saviour Christ, of whose name (according to the Spaish language) it was first called Cantabriga, after of his some Grantinus (who is said to have walled it about) Grantbriga, and Grantbrige. Others fay, that Cashvilanus Prince of the Troynobantes, King Octavius, Arthur King of Great Bitain, and Ethelbert King of Kent, were each of them founders or restorers of the same. But the chiefest conclude and agree, and Grantonge. Others jay, that Counters jay, that Counters jay, that Sigebert King of the East Angles was the principall Founder thereof, about the yeares 630 and 636, who assigned dives Hostles and Houses for students to inhabite in, giving them large priviledges and charters, whereof some are yet extant, procuring also great immunities from Pope Honorius the first, which Sergius the first confirmed. Since which time, by reason of mny incursions, and continuall warres between the Britains, Romanes, Saxons, the Kings of this Heptarchie, Danes and Normans, the light and glorie of this Academie was not onely of old much eclipfed; but even fince the Conquest ( in the Barons warre.) also obscured and defaced: and it is most certain, as the destructions were many, so the restaurations thereof shortly ensued by on Prince or other; fo that at length recovering it felf, it is most worthily reputed one of the famous Universities in the world. Mah honour this place hath received by the sonnes and nephews of Kings, in being Earls thereof, viz. William brother to Ranulph Earl of Chefter, John Earl of Henault uncle to Philiple Beau King of France, whose daughter Habel was wife to King Edward the third: William Marquesse of Juliars, Edmund of Langley Duke of York, Edward Duke of York, Richard Earl of Cambridge, Richard Duke of York, James Marquelle Hamleton Earl of Arren, Baron lamleton of Chattelrault, Ge, and at this present James Marquelle Hamleton Earl of Arren, Ge. Master of the Horse to his Majeftie, coc. And how foever the Hoftles, Halls, Innes, Schools, and religious Houses, whereof the Universitie before and free the Conquest did consist, which now are wholly defaced, or in part converted into some of the present Colledges, were for their number and number of Students in them, much above all that are now extant, many of them being formerly known by these nmes, Frater de Pænitentia Jesu Christi, S. Botolphi, Divi Gerhardi, S. Edwardi, S. Edwardi, S. Edwardi, S. Edwardi, S. Edwardi, S. Augustini, Divi Thonæ, Beatæ Mariæ, S. Clementis, Hovingi Diversorium, Divi Gregorii, S. Margaretæ, S. Katharinæ Hospitium, Harlstoni Diversorium, S. Trinitatis Domus Dei, Ruddi Hospitium, Michaelis Domus Aula Rega, S. Pauli Diversorium, Burdeni Hospitium, with many others; yet at this present it consists of sixtee goodly Colledges and Halls, erected and maintained with the lands and revenews of their severall Founders (one of the Chappels thereof, sounded by holy King Henry the sixth, and the Colledge of the holy and undivided Trinitic sounded by King Henry the world can in all points parallell.) These are the nurseries of Gods true religion, and seminaries of good literature, which by the speciall favour and gracious protection of our most deare Soveraigne Lord CHARLE, By the grace of God of Great Britain, France, and Ireland King, ore. do enjoy all peace and happinesse.
